

FACTIOUS

Meaning: Factious: causing or characterized by internal dissent or conflict, often leading to division within a group.

1. The factious debate among the committee members threatened to derail the entire project.
2. His factious remarks during the meeting only served to deepen the existing divisions within the team.
3. In a factious society, even minor disagreements can escalate into significant conflicts.
4. The leaders of the factious groups struggled to find common ground in their negotiations.
5. Her factious attitude towards the proposed changes created a tense atmosphere in the office.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/factious>