

FACTITIOUS

Meaning: Factitious: artificially created or fabricated, often misleadingly presented as genuine.

1. The scientist criticized the study for relying on factitious data rather than genuine research.
2. Despite its factitious nature, the story captivated readers who believed it was based on real events.
3. The politician's factitious claims about his opponent were quickly debunked by the media.
4. Her enthusiasm for the factitious character she created in her novel surprised even her closest friends.
5. In a world where factitious news spreads rapidly, discerning truth from fiction has become increasingly challenging.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/factitious>