

FACTORING

Meaning: Factoring is the process of breaking down an expression or number into its constituent parts or components, often to simplify calculations or identify underlying patterns.

1. Factoring is an essential skill in algebra that helps simplify complex equations.
2. The accountant spent hours factoring the company's expenses to identify potential savings.
3. Understanding the concept of factoring can greatly improve a student's performance in mathematics.
4. She found that factoring the polynomial made it easier to solve for its roots.
5. In finance, factoring can refer to converting receivables into immediate cash flow.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/factoring>