

FACTORSHIP

Meaning: Factorship refers to the role or position of an individual or group in influencing or contributing to a project or decision-making process.

1. The factorship of the project was shared among several key stakeholders.
2. Her factorship in the decision-making process proved to be invaluable.
3. He took on the factorship role to ensure that all opinions were considered.
4. Understanding the factorship dynamics can help improve team collaboration.
5. The factorship of the initiative required careful negotiation and compromise.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/factorship>