

FACTORY

Meaning: A factory is a large building or complex where goods are manufactured or assembled, typically using machinery and a workforce.

1. The old factory on the edge of town has been abandoned for years.
2. She took a tour of the textile factory to see how clothes are made.
3. The factory produces thousands of toys each day for children around the world.
4. Workers at the factory are implementing new safety measures to ensure a secure environment.
5. After the storm, the factory suffered significant damage, prompting a lengthy repair process.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/factory>