

FACTOTUM

Meaning: Factotum: a person who performs various tasks or duties, often serving in multiple roles or capacities.

1. The new employee proved to be a valuable factotum, handling everything from administrative tasks to minor repairs.
2. In the small art studio, she served as a factotum, managing supplies while also assisting in painting and framing.
3. His role as a factotum in the household allowed him to learn a variety of skills, from cooking to gardening.
4. As a factotum for the local theater company, he took on various responsibilities, including stage management and ticket sales.
5. The busy entrepreneur relied on her factotum to streamline operations and ensure that nothing fell through the cracks.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/factotum>