

FACTUAL

Meaning: Factual refers to information that is based on objective reality and verifiable evidence, rather than personal beliefs or opinions.

1. The documentary presented a factual account of the events leading up to the war.
2. It is essential to distinguish between factual information and personal opinion in a debate.
3. Her report was praised for being thorough and strictly factual without any bias.
4. The teacher emphasized the importance of referencing factual sources in research papers.
5. In court, the jury is expected to focus solely on the factual evidence presented during the trial.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/factual>