

FACULAR

Meaning: Facular refers to the arrangement of vascular bundles or patterns resembling such arrangements, often used in artistic contexts to describe intricate designs.

1. The artist used facular patterns to create a mesmerizing visual effect in her painting.
2. In botany, facular refers to the specific arrangement of vascular bundles within a stem.
3. The discovery of facular structures in the ancient texts provided new insights into historical botanical studies.
4. Scientists have identified facular features on certain types of leaves that enhance photosynthesis.
5. Her research focused on how facular distributions affected the overall growth of the plant species.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/facular>