

FADED

Meaning: Faded: having lost brightness, color, or intensity over time.

1. The photograph had faded over the years, leaving only a ghostly impression of the once-vibrant colors.
2. As the sun set, the light slowly faded, casting long shadows across the landscape.
3. Her enthusiasm for the project faded as the deadlines loomed closer.
4. The old paint on the fence had faded to a dull gray, barely resembling its original bright hue.
5. With each passing day, the memories of that summer faded like the colors of a well-worn tapestry.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/faded>