

FADGE

Meaning: FADGE (verb): To create or assemble something quickly or resourcefully, often from available materials or leftovers.

1. She decided to fadge a quick meal from the leftovers in the fridge.
2. The artist managed to fadge a beautiful sculpture from scrap metal and discarded items.
3. He had to fadge a story to explain his absence at the party last night.
4. During the camping trip, they had to fadge a shelter out of branches and tarps.
5. Despite the lack of proper tools, the team managed to fadge a solution to the problem.
6. He managed to fadge a convincing excuse for being late to the meeting.
7. With a bit of creativity, she could always fadge together a meal from whatever leftovers she found in the fridge.
8. Despite the challenges, they were able to fadge a plan that worked for everyone involved.
9. He had to fadge a new strategy after his original idea fell through.
10. During the school play, the students had to fadge their costumes from materials they had at home.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fadge>