

FADING

Meaning: FADING: gradually losing brightness, clarity, or strength over time.

1. The colors of the sunset were fading into a soft twilight.
2. Memories of her childhood were fading like the photographs left in the sun.
3. With each passing year, the once-vibrant mural was slowly fading from the wall.
4. As the music played on, the excitement in the room began fading away.
5. His enthusiasm for the project was fading, leaving him feeling unmotivated.
6. The fading light of dusk painted the sky in shades of purple and gold.
7. As the music played on, the memories of the past began fading into the background.
8. Her enthusiasm for the project was fading, overshadowed by the mounting pressure.
9. The once vibrant mural on the wall was now fading, its colors muted by years of sunlight.
10. He noticed the fading echoes of laughter that lingered long after the party had ended.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fading>