

FAGGING

Meaning: Fagging is the practice at some British boarding schools where younger students are required to serve and perform tasks for older students.

1. Fagging was a traditional practice at some British boarding schools where younger boys had to serve older students.
2. The term 'fagging' has evolved over the years, often carrying different connotations in various contexts.
3. In the past, fagging involved performing menial tasks and running errands for older peers.
4. Although physically demanding, fagging was sometimes seen as a rite of passage among schoolboys.
5. Some former students recall their fagging experiences with a mix of nostalgia and discomfort.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fagging>