

FAINT

Meaning: Faint: lacking strength or clarity; weak or dim, often referring to physical sensations or sounds.

1. She felt faint after skipping breakfast and running for the bus.
 2. The faint sound of music drifted through the open window.
 3. He had a faint hope that things would improve with time.
 4. The doctor assured her that feeling faint occasionally was normal.
 5. A faint smile crossed her face as she remembered the happy times.
 6. The faint sound of music could be heard from the distant festival.
 7. She felt a faint pang of regret as she walked away from the opportunity.
 8. His voice was barely a faint whisper, lost in the noise of the crowd.
 9. The stars were faint in the sky, hardly visible due to the city lights.
 10. After standing up too quickly, she felt faint and had to sit down.
 11. She felt a faint wave of dizziness wash over her as she stood up too quickly.
 12. In the distance, a faint light flickered, hinting at the presence of a hidden cabin.
 13. His voice was so faint that I could barely make out what he was saying.
 14. The scent of blooming flowers was faint, yet it brought back vivid memories of spring.
 15. After running the marathon, she experienced a faint feeling of exhaustion that made her sit down.
 16. She felt faint after standing in the hot sun for too long.
 17. The faint sound of piano music drifted through the open window.
 18. He could see the faint outline of the mountains in the distance.
 19. A faint smile crossed her lips as she remembered the happy moment.
 20. The faint scent of lavender filled the air, calming her nerves.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/faint>