

FAINTING

Meaning: Fainting is the temporary loss of consciousness, often due to a reduction in blood flow to the brain, typically triggered by factors such as dizziness, stress, or sudden changes in posture.

1. She felt a wave of dizziness before fainting at the sight of the blood.
2. Fainting can sometimes be a reaction to standing up too quickly or feeling overwhelmed.
3. The doctor explained that fainting can occur due to dehydration or low blood sugar levels.
4. After fainting during the marathon, he was taken to the medical tent for evaluation.
5. Witnessing the accident caused her to faint, leaving her friends in a state of concern.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fainting>