

FAINTLING

Meaning: Fainting (noun): a person or thing that is weak, feeble, or lacking in strength or vitality.

1. The faintling of her voice echoed softly in the empty room.
2. After the long hike, he felt like a faintling, barely able to keep his eyes open.
3. She attempted to speak, but her words emerged as a faintling whisper in the wind.
4. The faintling glow of the candles created an intimate atmosphere for the dinner.
5. In the old tale, the faintling spirit of the forest was said to guide lost travelers home.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fainting>