

FAINTS

Meaning: Faints (verb): loses consciousness briefly, often due to a lack of blood flow to the brain, typically caused by factors such as heat, shock, or emotional distress.

1. She fainted from the heat during the outdoor concert.
2. After hearing the shocking news, he fainted and fell to the ground.
3. The doctor warned her that standing up too quickly could make her faint.
4. In the middle of the performance, the actress fainted under the bright stage lights.
5. As the scary movie reached its climax, several audience members fainted from fear.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/faints>