

FAIR-MINDED

Meaning: Fair-minded: characterized by impartiality and a commitment to justice, especially in decision-making and conflict resolution.

1. She is known for her fair-minded approach to resolving conflicts in the workplace.
2. The judge was praised for being fair-minded, ensuring that both sides of the case were heard.
3. In a fair-minded discussion, everyone's opinions are valued, regardless of their backgrounds.
4. His fair-minded nature made him a trusted mediator among his peers.
5. We need more fair-minded leaders who prioritize justice and equality for all.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fair-minded>