

FALLER

Meaning: FALLER (noun): A term referring to something that falls, particularly in the context of trees or foliage, often used to describe the season or event of falling leaves or timber.

1. The tree's sudden collapse revealed a hidden world of moss and mushrooms beneath the faller.
2. As the leaves turned golden, the faller of autumn painted the landscape in vibrant hues.
3. He was known as a skilled faller, capable of bringing down even the largest trees with precision.
4. In the game, the faller is the player who has the power to change the course of the match.
5. The faller in the competition demonstrated incredible skill and control as he navigated the obstacles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/faller>