

FALSE-FACED

Meaning: False-faced: characterized by a deceptive or insincere appearance that conceals one's true feelings or intentions.

1. The politician's false-faced demeanor belied his true intentions.
2. Despite her false-faced charm, everyone knew she was untrustworthy.
3. He wore a false-faced smile, hiding the turmoil within.
4. The artist captured the essence of false-faced beauty in her latest painting.
5. In a world filled with false-faced friendships, she valued honesty above all.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/false-faced>