

FALSER

Meaning: FALSER: comparative form of false; more untrue or misleading than another statement or belief.

1. The claim that the earth is flat is falser than ever in the age of scientific discovery.
2. He realized that his earlier assumptions were falser after he reviewed the evidence presented by his peers.
3. In a debate about honesty, she argued that misleading statistics are falser than outright lies.
4. The idea that money can buy happiness is falser than most people want to believe.
5. As the investigation unfolded, it became clear that the original story was falser than anyone had anticipated.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/falsar>