

FALSIFICATION

Meaning: Falsification refers to the act of deliberately altering, misrepresenting, or fabricating information or evidence.

1. The scientist faced severe criticism for the falsification of data in her research paper.
2. Falsification of evidence can undermine the integrity of a legal case.
3. He was accused of falsification after inconsistencies were found in his financial reports.
4. The committee emphasized the importance of honesty to prevent any form of falsification in academic work.
5. Falsification can lead to significant consequences, both ethically and legally, for those involved.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/falsification>