

FALSIFY

Meaning: To falsify means to alter or manipulate information or evidence with the intent to deceive or misrepresent the truth.

1. She attempted to falsify the evidence to protect her friend from prosecution.
2. The scientist was accused of trying to falsify the results of his experiment to gain funding.
3. In an effort to deceive the jury, he tried to falsify his alibi with fake documents.
4. Falsifying records can lead to severe legal consequences and damage one's reputation.
5. The investigation revealed that the company had falsified its financial statements to attract investors.
6. She tried to falsify her age on the application form.
7. The investigation revealed that he had attempted to falsify the evidence presented in court.
8. It is illegal to falsify documents in order to obtain a loan.
9. The scientist was accused of attempting to falsify his research results to gain funding.
10. To maintain integrity, it's essential not to falsify any information in your reports.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/falsify>