

FAMILIAR

Meaning: FAMILIAR (adjective): well-known from long or close association, evoking a sense of recognition or comfort.

1. The melody of the song felt strangely familiar, evoking memories of childhood.
2. Despite moving to a new city, the local café had a familiar ambiance that made her feel at home.
3. He greeted her with a familiar smile that instantly put her at ease.
4. The concept was familiar to him, but he had never explored it in depth before.
5. As she walked through the old neighborhood, familiar sights and sounds flooded back to her.
6. The melody of the song was familiar, bringing back memories of childhood.
7. She felt a familiar sense of comfort as she stepped into her grandmother's house.
8. Although he was in a new city, the accents of the locals sounded strangely familiar.
9. The painting had a familiar style that reminded her of her art teacher.
10. Seeing the old friend again felt like reuniting with someone she had always known.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/familiar>