

FAMILIST

Meaning: Familist (noun): a person who prioritizes family relationships and values over individual interests and ambitions.

1. The familist view emphasizes the importance of family bonds over individualism.
2. In a familist society, collective family decisions often take precedence over personal ambitions.
3. She identified as a familist, believing that strong family ties were essential for a fulfilling life.
4. Critics of familism argue that it can lead to codependency and stifle personal growth.
5. The familist culture in that community fosters a sense of belonging and mutual support among relatives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/familist>