

FANATICAL

Meaning: Fanatical: exhibiting extreme and uncritical enthusiasm or zeal, often to the point of intolerance for differing views.

1. Her fanatical devotion to the cause often left little room for differing opinions.
2. The fanatical supporters filled the stadium, chanting and waving banners.
3. He approached his studies with a fanatical intensity that impressed his professors.
4. The fanatical quest for perfection sometimes led to burnout among the team members.
5. Despite his fanatical beliefs, he was able to engage in conversations with those who disagreed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fanatical>