

FANNEL

Meaning: FANNEL refers to a soft, usually woolen fabric or shirt, often used for warmth, as well as a type of fine mesh used for straining liquids.

1. The chef decided to use a fannel to strain the broth for a smoother texture.
2. She wore a fannel shirt that was both warm and stylish during the chilly evening.
3. A fannel is often preferred for its ability to absorb moisture quickly.
4. He chose to make his own fannel from soft cotton for the upcoming camping trip.
5. In the art of candlemaking, a fannel helps in pouring the wax without spills.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fannel>