

FAQUIR

Meaning: A faquir is a mystic or ascetic, often associated with enduring physical hardships and performing extraordinary feats to demonstrate spiritual devotion.

1. The faquir sat on a bed of nails, demonstrating his extraordinary ability to endure pain.
2. In the bustling market, the faquir captivated the crowd with his incredible feats of endurance and spirituality.
3. Many believe that the faquir possesses mystical powers, allowing him to transcend the physical limitations of the body.
4. As the sun set, the faquir entered a deep trance, meditating on the meaning of life and existence.
5. The local villagers often sought the wisdom of the faquir, hoping to gain insight into their troubles and dilemmas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/faquir>