

FAR

Meaning: Far: at a great distance in space, time, or degree.

1. The mountain range looked far and majestic against the evening sky.
2. She had traveled far and wide in search of the perfect gift.
3. It's far too late to change our plans for the weekend.
4. He felt a far greater sense of responsibility after becoming a parent.
5. From my window, I could see the city lights shining far in the distance.
6. The mountain range looked far in the distance, shrouded in mist.
7. She traveled far and wide in search of the perfect painting.
8. It's far better to plan ahead than to rush into a decision.
9. The concert was so far away that we decided to take a train.
10. He didn't think he would get far without any directions.
11. The mountain range seemed far away under the bright blue sky.
12. She traveled far and wide in search of the perfect design for her new home.
13. Despite the challenges, he always believed he could go far in his career.
14. The stars appeared so far that they seemed like tiny, distant diamonds.
15. In the far corner of the room, a soft light flickered gently.
16. The mountains looked far away against the clear blue sky.
17. She felt that their dreams were still far from reality.
18. He traveled far and wide in search of adventure.
19. The store is too far to walk to, so we'll drive instead.
20. Despite the distance, their friendship remained strong, even from far off places.