

FARCICAL

Meaning: FARCICAL: resembling or characterized by absurd or ridiculous situations, often provoking laughter.

1. The politician's farcical attempt to justify his actions left the audience in disbelief.
2. The play was so farcical that the audience couldn't help but laugh at the ridiculous situations presented.
3. Her farcical explanations for being late only made her seem more untrustworthy.
4. In a farcical turn of events, the serious meeting devolved into a chaotic comedy of errors.
5. The farcical nature of the situation became evident when the facts were finally revealed.
6. The play was so farcical that the audience couldn't stop laughing at the absurdity of the plot.
7. His farcical attempts to fix the car only made the problem worse, leaving us stranded on the road.
8. The debate turned into a farcical display of insults rather than a serious discussion of the issues.
9. In a farcical twist of fate, she won the lottery right after losing her job.
10. The committee's farcical decision to ban umbrellas on a rainy day left everyone shaking their heads in disbelief.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/farcical>