

FARL

Meaning: Farl: a type of flatbread, often triangular in shape, traditionally associated with Irish cuisine.

1. The chef prepared a traditional Irish farl to accompany the stew.
2. As I took a bite of the warm farl, I was transported back to my grandmother's kitchen.
3. She spread a generous layer of butter on her freshly baked farl before serving it.
4. Farl is often enjoyed with a cup of tea in many Irish households.
5. The texture of the farl was perfectly crispy on the outside and soft on the inside.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/farl>