

FARRAND

Meaning: Farrand (noun): A surname referring to a person or family, often associated with notable achievements or historical significance, as exemplified by an individual renowned for landscape painting and a family estate of historical importance.

1. Farrand was known for his exceptional talent in landscape painting.
2. The old Farrand estate had been in the family for generations, filled with rich history.
3. As they explored the city, they stumbled upon a quaint café named after Farrand.
4. Her dedication to her research earned her a prestigious award from the Farrand Foundation.
5. During the meeting, Farrand presented a groundbreaking proposal that impressed everyone.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/farrand>