

FASCICULAR

Meaning: Fascicular refers to a structure arranged in bundles or clusters, particularly in relation to vascular tissues in plants or muscle fibers in anatomy.

1. The fascicular arrangement of the plant's vascular tissue facilitates efficient nutrient transportation.
2. In the study of muscle anatomy, fascicular architecture is crucial for understanding contraction dynamics.
3. The scientist observed fascicular patterns in the nerve bundles during the microscopic examination.
4. Her research focused on the fascicular organization of the spinal cord and its implications for neural function.
5. The artist's depiction of fascicular structures in the painting highlighted the beauty of nature's design.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fascicular>