

FATALIST

Meaning: A fatalist is a person who accepts that events are predetermined and believes that human efforts cannot change their fate.

1. The fatalist believed that no matter how hard he tried, his destiny was already written.
2. In conversations about life and death, she often adopted a fatalist perspective, accepting whatever came her way.
3. His fatalist attitude prevented him from taking risks, as he felt that outcomes were beyond his control.
4. The novel's protagonist struggles against a fatalist worldview that sees effort as futile in the face of fate.
5. Many cultures have fatalist traditions, where the acceptance of fate is seen as a virtue rather than a defeat.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fatalist>