

FATTENER

Meaning: FATTENER (noun): A substance or ingredient used to increase richness or fat content in food or to promote weight gain in livestock.

1. The chef added a special fattener to the recipe to enhance the dish's richness.
2. In the agricultural industry, certain supplements are marketed as fatteners for livestock.
3. She was cautious about the use of any fattener in her diet, preferring whole foods instead.
4. The animal feed contained a fattener designed to help the livestock gain weight quickly.
5. Some bodybuilding supplements claim to act as a fattener to support muscle growth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fattener>