

FAULCHION

Meaning: Faulchion: a type of sword with a broad, curved blade, typically used in medieval warfare.

1. The knight unsheathed his faulchion, its blade gleaming in the sunlight.
2. In the ancient battle, the warrior wielded a faulchion with great skill and precision.
3. Legend has it that the faulchion belonged to a famous hero of old who defended the realm.
4. The blacksmith crafted a unique faulchion, adorned with intricate designs along the hilt.
5. During the festival, a demonstration showcased the elegance of the faulchion's swift cuts and defensive maneuvers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/faulchion>