

FAULD

Meaning: Fauld: a fenced enclosure or pen for animals, typically used for shelter or storage.

1. The fauld in the old barn was filled with forgotten tools and memories of hard work.
2. During the storm, the fauld became a shelter for the wandering sheep.
3. The craftsmen in the village often gathered at the fauld to share stories and laughter.
4. As the sun set, the fauld was illuminated by the warm glow of lanterns.
5. The fauld's rustic charm attracted photographers and artists from all around.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fauld>