

FAULT

Meaning: FAULT: A mistake or error for which someone is responsible, or a defect in a system or material that requires correction.

1. It was not her fault that the meeting was canceled at the last minute.
2. The engineers discovered a fault in the software that needed urgent attention.
3. He took responsibility for the fault in the project, acknowledging his oversight.
4. The fault line beneath the city raised concerns about potential earthquakes.
5. Despite the criticism, she believed that every mistake was a learning opportunity, not a fault.
6. The engineer identified a fault in the bridge's structural design.
7. It was her fault that the project fell behind schedule due to her lack of communication.
8. He tried to find fault in her argument, but she presented her case convincingly.
9. The fault line in the region has made it prone to earthquakes over the years.
10. Recognizing one's own faults is the first step toward personal growth.
11. The power outage was due to a fault in the electrical system.
12. She refused to accept fault in the argument, insisting that both sides were to blame.
13. The engineer identified the fault in the bridge's design during the inspection.
14. It's not your fault that the project didn't meet the deadline; unforeseen circumstances played a big role.
15. His fault was not in his intentions but in his execution of the plan.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fault>