

FAULTER

Meaning: To falter means to lose strength, confidence, or momentum, often resulting in hesitation or a decline in performance.

1. As the pressure mounted, he began to falter in his confidence.
2. The team was doing well until they started to falter in their communication.
3. She refused to falter in her beliefs, despite the challenges she faced.
4. During the performance, his voice began to falter, revealing his nerves.
5. Even the most experienced athletes can occasionally falter under stress.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/falter>