

FAUTOR

Meaning: Fautor: a person who supports, advocates for, or promotes a particular idea, project, or cause.

1. The fautor of the design was renowned for their innovative approach to architecture.
2. She acted as a fautor for the charity, helping to raise significant funds through her efforts.
3. As a fautor in the art world, he mentored many aspiring painters and sculptors.
4. The community rallied around the fautor of the new policy, eager to support their vision for change.
5. His role as a fautor in the project ensured that creative ideas were brought to life effectively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fautor>