

FAVORITISM

Meaning: Favoritism is the practice of giving preferential treatment to certain individuals over others, often leading to feelings of unfairness or resentment.

1. Favoritism in the workplace can lead to resentment among employees who feel overlooked.
2. The teacher's favoritism towards certain students was evident during the grading process.
3. Many people believe that favoritism in politics undermines the democratic process.
4. She was accused of favoritism when she consistently promoted her friends over more qualified candidates.
5. Addressing favoritism in team dynamics is crucial for maintaining trust and collaboration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/favoritism>