FAWNER

Meaning: A fawner is a person who excessively flatters or praises someone, often for personal gain or to gain favor.

1. The fawner showered compliments on the manager in hopes of securing a promotion.
2. Despite his talent, the artist was often surrounded by fawners who only praised him for their own gain.
3. She quickly grew tired of the fawner's insincere flattery and sought genuine friendships instead.
4. At the gala, a fawner approached the celebrity, eager to ingratiate himself with empty praises.
5. His reputation as a fawner made others skeptical of his true intentions and sincerity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fawner