

FECK

Meaning: Feck (noun): a term used to express a sense of disregard or lack of concern, often in relation to a situation or opinion.

1. The feck of the storm left the town in disarray.
2. He couldn't care a feck about what others thought of him.
3. With a feck of determination, she pursued her dreams relentlessly.
4. After a long day, he just wanted to feck off and relax at home.
5. Her feckless attitude towards the project frustrated the entire team.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/feck>