

FECULENCE

Meaning: Feculence refers to the state of being foul or filthy, often characterized by the presence of decaying matter or unpleasant odors.

1. The feculence of the stagnant pond was evident from the foul odor that permeated the air.
2. After the heavy rain, the streets were left in a state of feculence, with mud and debris everywhere.
3. His description of the city's feculence painted a vivid picture of neglect and decay.
4. The scientist studied the feculence found in the water samples to assess pollution levels.
5. Despite its beauty, the garden was marred by the feculence left behind by careless visitors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/feculence>