

FECULENT

Meaning: Feculent: having a foul smell or appearance, typically due to the presence of decaying organic matter or waste.

1. The chef was concerned that the feculent smell from the old pantry would ruin the evening's dinner party.
2. After days of rain, the once-clear pond had turned feculent, with algae and debris floating on the surface.
3. His feculent remarks during the meeting left everyone feeling uncomfortable and unwilling to contribute further.
4. The feculent waste in the river prompted immediate action from environmental activists seeking to restore its health.
5. She wrinkled her nose at the feculent substance stuck to the bottom of the old container, realizing it had been left untouched for too long.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/feculent>