

FEDERATE

Meaning: To federate means to unite or form a federation among different groups or entities for a common purpose or collaboration.

1. The newly elected council aimed to federate the various community groups into a unified organization.
2. To address regional issues effectively, the states decided to federate their resources and expertise.
3. The proposal to federate the independent research institutions was met with widespread support from the academic community.
4. In an effort to strengthen their alliance, the countries agreed to federate their defense strategies against common threats.
5. The goal of the conference was to federate the interests of diverse stakeholders in the environmental movement.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/federate>