

FEELER

Meaning: A feeler is an inquiry or tentative suggestion made to assess interest or opinions on a particular subject.

1. The researcher sent out a feeler to gauge interest in the new project.
2. After weeks of silence, she decided to put out a feeler about his feelings for her.
3. He extended a feeler to his colleagues to see if they were open to a team-building retreat.
4. In the dating world, sending a feeler can help determine if someone is genuinely interested.
5. The company issued a feeler to assess the market's response to their upcoming product launch.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/feeler>