

FEET

Meaning: Feet: the plural form of foot, referring to the lower extremities of the body that support weight and enable locomotion.

1. The children ran across the grassy field, their bare feet leaving imprints in the soft earth.
2. After a long day of hiking, my feet were sore and in desperate need of rest.
3. She admired the intricate henna designs that adorned her feet for the wedding ceremony.
4. As the sun set, the warm sand felt comforting beneath my feet as I strolled along the beach.
5. The dancer gracefully moved across the stage, her feet gliding effortlessly in time with the music.
6. The children splashed in the puddles, giggling as water soaked their feet.
7. After a long hike, her feet ached from the weight of her heavy boots.
8. He took off his shoes and wiggled his toes in the warm sand beneath his feet.
9. The doctor examined her feet for any signs of injury following the accident.
10. On chilly evenings, she loved to curl up with a blanket and warm her cold feet by the fire.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/feet>