

FEIGN

Meaning: To feign means to pretend or simulate a condition, feeling, or situation, often for deceptive purposes.

1. She decided to feign illness to avoid attending the tedious meeting.
2. The actor managed to feign his emotions so convincingly that the audience was captivated.
3. In an attempt to gain sympathy, he chose to feign a tragic backstory.
4. Despite her calm demeanor, she was only feigning confidence during the presentation.
5. He would often feign indifference, but deep down, he truly cared about the outcome.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/feign>