

FEIGNER

Meaning: FEIGNER: A person who pretends or simulates a feeling, condition, or situation that is not genuine.

1. She tried to feign joy at the surprise party, but her disappointment was obvious.
2. He decided to feign illness to avoid attending the meeting he dreaded.
3. In the play, the character must feign loyalty while secretly plotting against his master.
4. They could see through her attempt to feign confidence during the presentation.
5. To avoid punishment, he had to feign ignorance about the rules.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/feigner>