

FEINT

Meaning: Feint (noun): a deceptive or pretended movement or action intended to distract or mislead an opponent.

1. The boxer executed a perfect feint, tricking his opponent into overcommitting.
2. During the chess match, she made a feint move that led her rival into a trap.
3. The soldier used a feint to distract the enemy while his comrades flanked from the side.
4. In the dance performance, the lead dancer incorporated a feint that captivated the audience.
5. His feint during the game left the defender off balance, creating an opening for a shot.
6. The boxer executed a clever feint that left his opponent off balance.
7. In the midst of the game, the player made a feint to the left before darting right.
8. She used a feint to distract her opponent before making her actual move.
9. His feint was so convincing that the audience gasped, believing he would lose.
10. The general ordered a feint attack to mislead the enemy about their true intentions.
11. The boxer executed a clever feint, causing his opponent to misjudge the next move.
12. In the game of chess, a feint can distract the opponent and lead to an unexpected victory.
13. The soldier used a feint to draw the enemy troops away from their stronghold.
14. Her smile was a feint, hiding the disappointment she felt inside.
15. With a swift feint to the left, he successfully dodged the incoming tackle.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/feint>